

THE INN AT LANGLEY

Meet The Spa at The Inn at Langley's Director Marilyn Strong

Your retreat experience will be facilitated by Marilyn Strong, Spa Director and ceremonial guide. Besides 15 years' experience in the Spa Industry, Marilyn has worked as a workshop leader in the areas of women's spiritual growth, dream work, creativity and has facilitated rites of passage for the past 30 years, from beginning to the end of life.

A former Director of Education at the Chinook Learning Center on Whidbey Island (now The Whidbey Institute) she was also a co-creator and facilitator of Gaia Spirit Rising: Healing Ourselves, Healing the Earth, a 9-month spiritual growth group for women that ran for 8 years in the Northwest. Her study with Native American and European teachers have instilled in her a love of earth-based spirituality and ceremony. The Medicine Wheel and the healing aspect of nature, the elements and the seasonal round play an important part in the way that she views the world. She has been trained as a death mid-wife and is a life-long dream tracker and leader of dream groups. Marilyn is currently training with Jungian Analyst and depth-psychologist, Robert Bosnak in Embodied Imagination, a way of working with dream imagery that is bodybased and wellness-oriented.

For more information go to her website: www.handsofalchemy.com

